Senior Class

RUTH BRUNER, "Toots"--She's lovely! She's engaged! She uses Bab-o! Noted for her giggle; her hobby's her hope chest!

ROLLIN DAVIS, "Trousse"--Men of few words are the greatest. Where he is, there's no dull moments. Night life is his hobby.

TOM DUNN, "Icabod"--Cupid gets a woman hater sooner or later. He's noted for his Veronica hair-do, while the fire station is his hobby.

NEVA GANGSTAD, "Flirt"--Ask me anything!--She's noted for her keyboard rythm Finds taking medicine a great pastime.

ARLYS HALLIGAN, "Ollie"--A hearty heart with many friends. She is noted for her baby beeves, while boys' 4-H occupies her spare time.

DONNA HAMERSLY, "Shorty"--It pays to be tall when it comes to basketball. She is distinguished by her 6'1". We wouldn't wonder that basketball is her hobby.

JUNIOR HENRICHS, "Simon"--Ready to talk, ready to play, and ready to quit studying. We know Junior by his wise cracks, while his spare time is so nicely filled with Julia.

DARYL HUTCHINSON, "Hutch"--Silence is golden and I'm broke. That hearty laugh belongs to him. Of course school is his hobby.

JOSEPH JACOBSON, "Jake"--Never do today what you can do tomorrow. Clever ideas when he thinks mark this boy. Who could have a better hobby than girls?

HUGH LINN, "Doc"--Quiet please--a genius at work. He is noted for his wrestling ability, so naturally figures are his hobby --mathamatical figures.

DARLEEN MARTENS, "Donnie"--I wish there were five days in a week end.--The postman tells us she is noted for her daily letters. By that bit of information we know that Tommie is her hobby.

RICHARD MOLINE, "Champ"--Dynamite comes packed in small packages. We don't know just what "the Champ" is noted for unless it is "Where Dunn is, there I will be also."

JOAN PETERS, "Jonie"--Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we may diet.--We can tell her by her pretty blond hair. Of course the Nu-Z is her hobby--she spends enough time at it.

BETTY STOULIL, "Bohunk"--Her sense of humor has saved her from many an embarrassing moment.--She's the one who can't make up her mind which one, so she spends her spare time just collecting???

NORMAN TAYLOR, "Slim"--It's my curly hair that makes the girls sit up and stare.--We know him by his boisterous ways, but being "good as pie" is "Normie's" hobby.

LOIS TORKELSON, "Torkie"--Why overdo studying, it's only a pastime.--We know her when she opens her mouth, and she spends her time with good old mischief.

TOM WALLACE, "Curly"--The harder I try, the gooder to be, the worser I am.--Tom is the fellow with the sporty clothes, and I'll bet you've guessed his hobby is Bonnie.

DONALD WHITTLESEY, "Don"--A lady's man.--Oh, those dreamy eyes are what give him away. Rutland is his hobby.

ROY WIEGERT, "Herman"--To look at me would you ever think me a great lover?--We know this lad by that Kaiser he wheels around. Somehow he thinks Rutland is a nice hobby too.

DENZIL WIEMERS, "Mike"--I could travel to Pioneer with my eyes closed.--Pull in your ears, I can't see the front of the room. Don't talk to his girl--he's likely to get jealous.

Cpl. Ernest Peddicord

Ernest was a member of the 1951 class until after his junior year when he joined the Marine Corp.

He is stationed in Japan where he is drill instructor of a parachute division.

Class Poem

A is for Arlys. A bright girl is she.
Her favorite letter? Why, of course, it is "d".

B is for Betty, a cute little chick;
To soldiers and sailors, she is always their pick.

B is for Bruner; she's picked her mate.
She's filling her hope chest as of late.

C is for Charleston, an old dance turned new.
How many of us can do it? Why, just a few.

D is for Denzil and where is he?
Just look for Donna and there he'll be.

D is for Dunn, who has a special hair style.
He never studies but fiddles all the while.

E is for excellent, the standard of our class.
We wouldn't brag, 'cause it takes too much brass.

F is for finale, this is our last year.
We've gone through 12 long years, all in high gear.

G is for Gangstad, who's writing this poem.
She has no rhyme talents but decided to show-em.

H is for Hamersly; now everyone knows her.
Why, I've seen that girl type nigh past sixty per.

H is for Hutch, with the "Ho-ho-ho" laugh.
He doesn't like English, but he does like his math.

I is for innocent. We seniors were.
To find a class better, one would travel "fer".

J is for Junior, a jolly, young boy.
Sometimes he's boisterous and sometimes he's coy.

J is for Joe, who has quite a "line".
Reading comic books is his greatest pastime.

K is for the kindnesses we've shown to you;
We hope you'll remember it and pass it on too.

L is for Linn. He loves to wrestle.
Certain out-of-town girls think he's their special.

L is for Lois. Now she has moved.
But she made us twenty, so she we'll include.

M is for Martens, who is so quiet;
It might be good for some of us to try it.

N is for Norman. He is a twin;
If you don't believe it, just ask him.

O is for the objective we made quite high.
Although while obtaining it, we made many a sigh.

P is for Peters, who is so neat.
She has a nickname, so just call her "Pete".

Q is for all the questions we've asked our teachers.
Twenty in our group and all knowledge seekers.

R is for Richard, the mighty "Champ".
He puts about as much light on a subject as a kerosene lamp.

R is for Roy, who plays in the band.
Algebra was one subject he just couldn't stand.

S is for the sugar, the spice we seniors had.
At times we were spunky, but never real bad.

T is for Trowse. You can hear him anywhere.
But if ever in need, call on him. He'll be right there.

U is for the uncanniness in our group of twenty;
Our talents weren't limited. We had plenty.

V is for vale which means "farewell".
Most of us won't be around anymore for quite a long spell.

W is for Wallace, who has that "movie star" look.
He likes to read the funnies but not just any old book.

W is for Whittlesey, the man with the voice.
A ride in his Nash would make any girl rejoice.

X is for X-mas. It comes once a year.
It's not like being a senior, 'cause you work to get there.

Y is for our yearbook. We'll cherish it forever.
We have tried to make it interesting as well as nice and clever.

Z is for the zeal that we seniors have "got".
We leave with you just three little words, "Forget Us Not".

Last Will and Testament

The rememberable class of '51 has a number of peculiar traits. Due to their overabundance in this field, they are giving to the underclassmen and teachers some of the characteristics they will no longer need.

In accordance with the above statement we do now state: Being of mental insanity and physical exhaustion, we the seniors of 1951 do hereby will the following:

- To Pat Cavanaugh, Roy Wiegert wills his car and his out-of-town connections. Watch it, Boy!
- To Darrell DeGroot, Tom Wallace wills his ability to sleep late and still make it to school before the last bell. Big help!
- To Ronald VanSickle, Don Whittlesey wills his "Come Hither Smile"; it really WOWS the ladies!
- To George Taylor, Hugh Linn wills his ability with figures. Any kind of figures you want will be alright!
- To Richard Dersheimer, Neva Gangstad wills her ability to play the piano with two hands, it's better than with one finger!
- To Marcia Martens, Rollin Davis wills his happy-go-lucky attitude. Remember two birds of a feather always go together.
- To Joy (Talulaha) Stearns, Richard Moline wills his feminine voice.
- To Pauline Sinnett, Tom Dunn wills his ability to look innocent at all times. Gets you out of a lot of scrapes.
- To Donna Frank, Denzil Wiemers wills his class ring and a reserved seat in his car. Honor them forever.
- To Janet Jacobson, Darlene Martens wills her book "How to Clean Diamond Rings". Looks like you're going to need it!
- To Marlene Terwilliger, Daryl Hutchinson wills his driving ability. Thoughtful, don't you think?
- To Marlyn Ahlrich, Junior Hinrichs wills his friendly relations with the freshmen girls. Beware, gals!
- To Mary Bradley, Arlys Halligan wills her 4H baby beeves. I hope you like them as much as I do.
- To Dolores Folk, Ruth Bruner wills her cute dimples. Boys really go for them; just try them!
- To Orville Landmesser, Donna Hamersly wills her ability to wear two different kinds of shoes. Embarrassing isn't it!?
- To June Warren, Joan Peters wills her editorship of the Nu-z. I'm sure you will find it as interesting and inspiring as I did.
- To Sewell VanAlstine, Joe Jacobson wills his place on the football team. It's much better than being water boy!
- To Jeane Carman (as one twin to another), Norman Taylor wills his sister for her brother. Who likes girls anyway?!
- To Beverly Henrichs, Betty Stoullil wills her inconvenient blushes and witty remarks. No further comment needed!
- To the teachers, the senior class wills their studious manner and their promise to come back to school and show them the bright side of life for a change.
- To the freshmen and sophomores, we will our athletic ability (pool hall included), our motto--never drive with lights when you can drive without them, our ability to do as little as possible, our debts, reputation and old test papers.

Signed The Seniors

TIME MARCHES BACK!

Yes, time marches back to the year 1940. As we look in the window, we find the first graders hard at work.

The first bright little face we view is that of Tommy Dunn. Tom is busy pasting Ruthie Bruner between the wall and curtain, but he is having trouble because Ruthie keeps eating the paste. She looks a little undernourished, don't you think?

In the corner we find little Donna Hamersly sitting in the block box (bumpy too). It seems that she was caught coloring Norman Taylor's hair with chalk dust. The teacher, for reasons, didn't seem to approve. Looks like Donna will have a long time to figure it out.

Nevie Gangstad and Roy Wiegert were just sent to the front of the room to "perform". Nevie thinks she can shake her head faster, but Roy disagrees. The race is on!

Denzil Wiemers is sitting (with the aid of three pillows) in his desk, while Don Whittlesey is doing his lessons standing up, for the same reason. They have just returned from a "man to man" talk with "that Man" in the office. Heck, why can't we throw mud balls?

Jonie Peters is busy running (on her hands and knees) after Hughie Linn (on his knees). She thinks it's still May basket day and Hugh doesn't dare get near enough to tell her it's not. Looks like we are going to have a track team in future years.

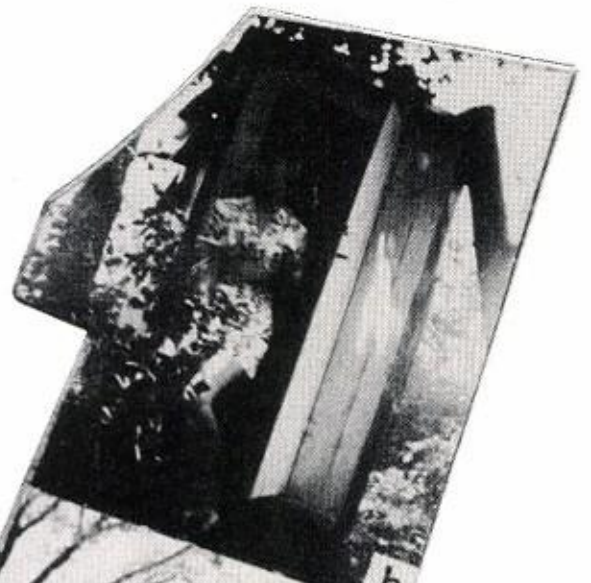

We find Rollie Davis and Tommy Wallace looking a little sun tanned and much to our surprise we find that while they are painting with black walnut paint they stuck their heads in to get a better view. The teacher informs us the "little darlings" are now tanned on both ends.

Since this is recreation period, Joie Jacobson and Junior Henrichs are recreating or should we say récreating. Equipped with their little hammers, they have successfully "fixed" the pencil sharpener. Of course, it doesn't work, but it sure takes up a lot less space and can openers are very convenient instruments.

Darleen Martens and Arlys Halligan are playing dress-up; they are attired in lovely high heels and their mother's discarded dresses. Dicky Moline is protesting loudly--they're using him as a baby, and he had to be tied into the carriage. He surely looks cute in his little pink bonnet.

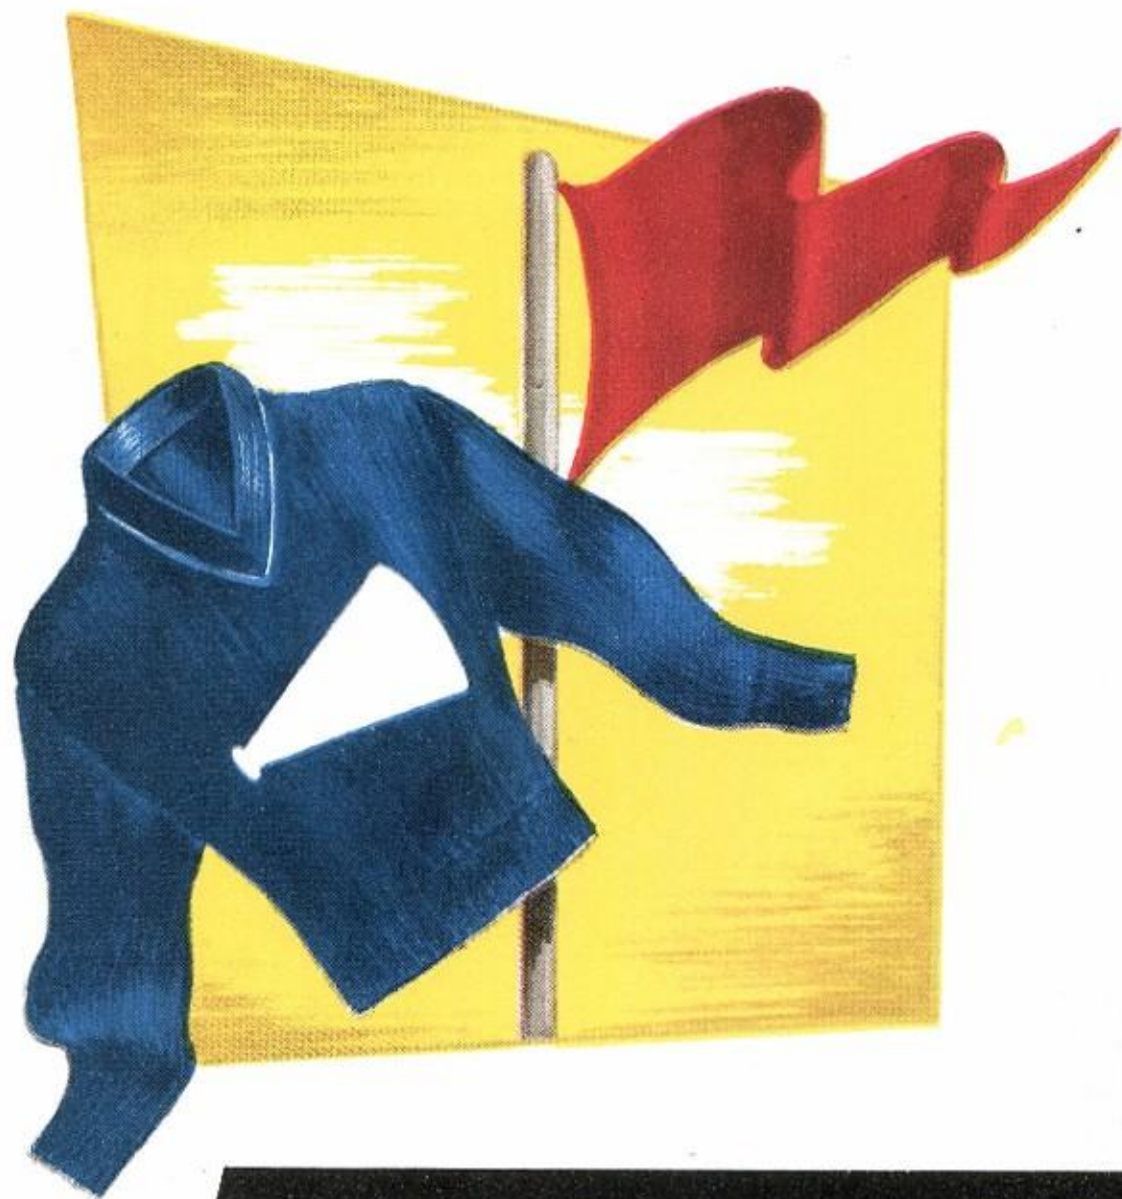

Darylle Hutchinson, dressed in a cowboy suit is riding the broom around the room lassoing all objects not tied down. His six guns are so heavy that his trousers are hanging at a precarious angle. Looks like "Dragalong Cassidy" will never make it west in this shape.

Shy little Betty Stoulil is quietly standing in the corner with big tears running down her dirty face. She didn't (like so much) mean to spill a box of tacks on teacher's chair. Besides she was going to pick them up--sometime.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Juniors present "Brides to Burn" by Jay Tobias on November 10.

Clarice Borland wants her daughter, Trudi, to marry Gilroy Gundy, rich Miss Letitia Gundy's nephew and heir. Miss Tish is looking for a wife for Gil. Clarice bribes Madam Gasparilla to tell Tish fate decrees Gil to marry Trudi. Although Trudi loves "Hap" Hazard, pre-medic student, she becomes engaged to Gil.

When it is learned Gil is a victim of amnesia and can't recall what happened during part of his life, Hap and Fats Fulton spring wives on him and impersonate Lolita and Princess Boogie--woogie. While the brides fight over Gil, Tish gets hysterical; Hotchkiss suffers a toothache and Dr. Jonesby, deaf dentist, mistakingly corners Gil and pulls a tooth, restoring his memory. Gil finally gets Sue and Hap gets Trudi and everyone lives happily ever after.

CONCERT BAND

The Gilmore City concert band consisting of 40 members, now is wearing new uniforms made possible through the efforts of the Band Mothers' organization. In the fall the band gave a concert in dedication of the new uniforms. They performed for various other occasions during the year.

At the present time, they are preparing for the spring concert and getting ready for the State Music Contest. Pieces they are currently working on include: "Bear Dance", "On the Square", "Colonel Bogey", "Aragonese" and "Chopin Prelude."

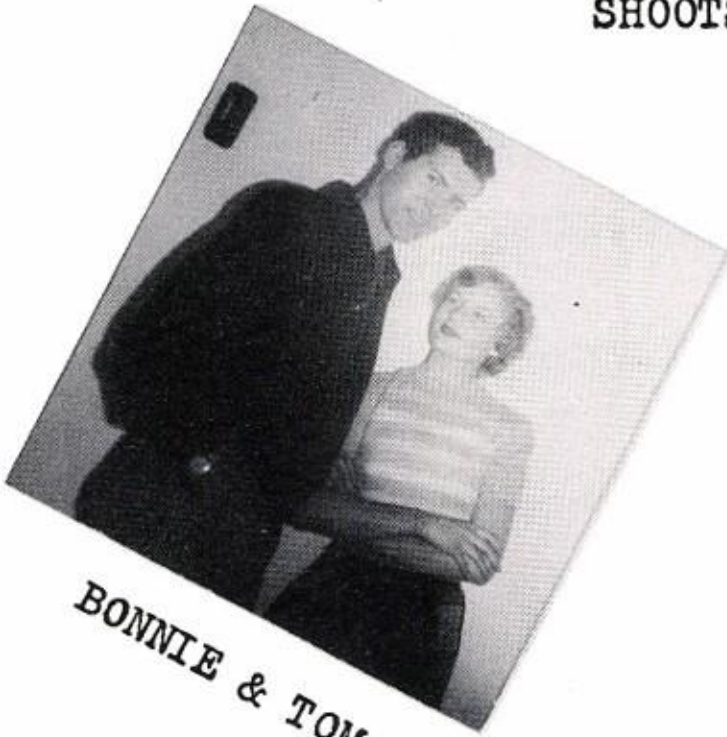

THE MARCHING BAND

With their snappy new suits, the Gilmore marching band added greatly to our four home football games and especially to the Homecoming festivities this year.

They are under the direction of Mr. Frey. Drum majorette is Frieda Taylor and twirlers are Shirley Jacobson, Sharon Walsh, Jackie Stearns and Bernadine Wingerson.

Special marching routines included "Countermarch", "The Wheel", "The Goal Post Pantamine" and at each home game they snapped into position to form the letter of their opposing team.

G.H.A.A.

The G.H.A.A. is a kind of student governing group. Its 12 members are elected by the student body. Its 4 boards of three each represent the four major activities of the high school, music, athletics, dramatics and literary. Janet Jacobson served as president during the past year and Joan Peters filled the secretary's position.

Major activities sponsored by the group were the big home-coming activities and the Christmas Alumni party.

The members of the boards are as follows:

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

After only two years of experience, the Gilmore City Tigerettes proved real champions by bringing home the Little Nine and Sectional Championships.

Their most outstanding game was the Sectional finals against Pocahontas which featured their spectacular fourth quarter come-back and victory after trailing 16 points.

The Tigerettes finished the season with a 16-9 record. Seniors on the squad are J. Peters, D. Hamersly and L. Torkelson.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Tigers finished their season after 19 games with their first game of the Sectional Tournament. This year half the squad was made up of lower classmen with only one or less years of varsity experience. The squad will lose the following four through graduation: Rollin Davis, Joe Jacobson, Daryl Hutchinson and Junior Henrichs.

BASEBALL

Because the "Black and Gold" will go to press before the 1951 baseball season is over, the 1950 results will be reviewed.

The boys had an especially good season with a 6-1 record and topping it by winning their sectional tournament and the right to advance to the district. Their only loss was at the hands of Mallard in the district tournament.

Five of the 1950 squad are lost to this spring's line-up, but the coming season looks promising. This year's seniors are Rollin Davis, Daryl Hutchinson and Junior Henrichs.

FOOTBALL

With a 3-4 record, the Gilmore Tigers finished their 1950 football season. The highlight of the season was their 12-6 Homecoming victory over Dows. Nancy Lynch reigned as Football Sweetheart over this Homecoming game.

Pat Cavanaugh and Darrell DeGroote were elected co-captains for the season.

The Tigers will suffer the loss next season of the following eight seniors: Tom Dunn, Tom Wallace, Daryl Hutchinson, Junior Henrichs, Norman Taylor, Joe Jacobson, Hugh Linn and Denzil Wiemers.

WHAT I LEARNED IN SCHOOL

FIRST GRADE--Chewing gum is hard to get out of hair. S-a-c-k does not spell poke. Mothers believe everything teacher tells them.

SECOND GRADE---Girls can count better than boys. Pencil sharpeners are always breaking. Teachers know everything.

THIRD GRADE--A boy should always carry a pocket-knife. Girls would rather borrow your knife than use pencil sharpener. Girls are cute.

FOURTH GRADE--Girls are prettier in fourth grade than in third. Men teachers can explain better than women teachers. If your hair is cut off close, you've a better chance in a fight.

FIFTH GRADE--You can play hooky and not get caught. It's better to tear up the note the teacher wants you to give your father.

SIXTH GRADE--If you play hooky to go fishing, you should take your lunch. Homework isn't necessary.

SEVENTH GRADE--Mother will believe a teacher before her own son. Playing cards for lunch money is frowned on by parents. It's easier to learn to smoke cigarettes than it is to chew. Teachers hate boys.

EIGHTH GRADE--Truant officers are stool pigeons. Three of a kind will beat two pairs. If you catch a skunk you'll be excused from all classes, even examination day.

FRESHMEN--Red-headed boys can't fight any better than others. Girls prefer boys with curly hair. Parents are old-fashioned.

SOPHOMORES--Girls are more fun than boys. Girls paint their toenails. It's almost impossible to fill an inside straight.

JUNIORS--Having a car is more important than having curly hair. Football players have to study. Most girls are fickle. A straight won't beat a flush.

SENIORS--Boys are more loyal than girls. A boy with a car has an advantage over a football player. If you don't smoke, you're a sissy. Lipstick comes in several different flavors.--Arthur O. Porter

CHUCKLES

1969---We have just learned of a teacher (Mr. Dershimer) who started out poor twenty years ago, and retired with a comfortable sum of $50,000. This was acquired through industry, economy, effort, perseverance, and the death of an uncle who left him an estate valued at $48,999.37

Hutch drove up to the toll bridge in his decrepit old car.

"Fifty Cents," cried the gate-man.

"Sold," replied Hutch.

Flick (eloping with Neva): How much is the fare?"

Taxi Driver: "That's all right sir. The young lady's father settled for that!"

Mr. Martens: "The man that marries my daughter will get a prize."

Trouse: Could I see it please?"

"Honestly, now, you would never have thought this car of mine was one I had bought secondhand, would you?" said Hugh.

"Never in my life", said Mr. Shannon. "I thought you had made it yourself."

Linda and Janice Andersen who were coming home from Sunday school were solemnly discussing the lesson.

"Do you believe there is a devil?" asked Janice.

"Of course not," replied Linda promptly, "It's just like Santa Claus. He's our father."

Roy, just out of law school, was pleading his first case. The railroad company had killed 24 of his former client's hogs. Roy was trying to impress the jury with the magnitude of the injury.

"Imagine, 24 hogs, gentlemen! 24! Twice the number there are in the jury box."

JR. HIGH GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This has been the first year of competition for the Gilmore City Jr. High Tigerettes. Most of their practice was during their regular physical education class which meets only twice a week.

The squad which was made up chiefly of eighth graders, also included sixth and seventh grade girls. This group shows great promise and after a year or two of high school experience they are going to give someone some real competition.

JR. HIGH BOYS' BASKETBALL

This year's junior high boys' basketball squad included the sixth, seventh and eighth grade boys. This is their second year of competition. All of the practices have been after school usually on high school game nights.

The boys playing this year had very little experience last year, but what they lack in experience, they make up for in enthusiasm. The record this season has not been outstanding, however they have gained some good experience that should be valuable to the boys in high school.

The squad participated in the Eagle Grove Invitational Tournament and the Boone Valley Tournament.

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

The Junior High Band is composed of sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students. According to Mr. Frey, their director, they are a very talented "bunch".

This is the group that made up the pep band that added so much to all the home basketball games during the season.

The clarinet trio working in preparation for contest is composed of members of this group. They are Ruth Nickels, Ardis Doeringsfeld and Wanda Day.
